

CULTURAL SESSIONAL EDUCATOR

CERES STUDENT PROGRAM

POSITION DESCRIPTION

CERES is located in East Brunswick and has been delivering environmental and cultural education programs to students for over 40 years. Each year we reach over 34,440 people who come for excursion programs and tours and our incursion staff supporting over 851 teacher engagements in schools and online.

CERES Community Environment Park is seeking educators, employed on a casual basis, to deliver Indonesian and Indian cultural activities for visiting school groups, mainly to primary school students. This involves:

- Delivering engaging and inspiring activities.
- Complete paid training, including observing programs and team-teaching.
- Set-up and pack-up teaching resources, and care for teaching equipment and spaces.
- Providing feedback about the activities to inform continuous improvement.

You will work in the Student Programs team, providing inspiring and engaging learning experiences for school-aged children at CERES, Brunswick East. The applicant should have:

Essential

- Teaching or instructional experience with young people, preferably in delivery of engaging cultural programs.
- Ability to understand and communicate global cultural and economic challenges and communicate with compassion, humility and balance.
- Show personal initiative in the delivery and coordination of day-to-day operations.

Desirable

- Evidence of developing and/or delivering engaging education programs, including hands-on activities for students and educators
- Qualifications or significant experience in teaching or similar
- Education for Sustainability knowledge and/or experience

Pay Rate $36.11 / hour. Sessional work through school terms.
